SCRUBS

10.30pm, Seven/GWN
Why, oh why, can't Bill Lawrence's other creation, Cougar Town, live up to the standard of Scrubs? We have a new class of student doctors and a new location and, while the revamped new series could be criticised for resurrecting an idea that had already had a long and full lifespan, the sharp scripting and knack for the absurd still means it is one of the funnier sitcoms around at the moment. Med student Lucy defies the scary Dr Cox by getting emotionally attached to an alcoholic patient, while the other students learn the benefits of getting involved. Zach Braff's JD is turning into a caricature of himself and his bromance with Turk is getting creepy but the new crop of doctors have plenty of promise.

TROPFEST 2010

7pm (EST), Movie Extra
This is a big treat for fans of the short film with the whole of this year's Tropfest streamed live from Sydney's Domain. There are sadly no WA films among the 16 finalists in what is now billed as the world's biggest short film festival. It's in its 18th year and hosts for the evening will be Adam Hills and Alan Brough. It is the second year that Movie Extra has broadcast the whole show, which is also screened live free in each capital city. In WA, it will be at the Bohemia Outdoor Cinema in Fremantle.

11.35pm, SBS2 The Giraffe's Neck (drama, 2004, in French, subtitles, PG, rpt) ★★½ Sandrine Bonnaire, Claude Rich. Accompanied by her nine-year-old daughter, a recently divorced woman visits her father in a retirement home. Affecting cross-generational drama.
 12.30am, Nine & Midnight, WIN Last Orders (drama, 2001, M, rpt) ★★ Michael Caine, Tom Courtenay. Three friends carry out their mate's final wish: for his ashes to be scattered by the sea. Beautifully observed road movie about the indignities of ageing.
 12.30am, SBS1 Joint Security Area (thriller, 2000, in Korean and English, subtitles, AV15+, rpt) ★★½ Lee Yeong-ae Lee, Lee Byung-hun. A Swiss-born Major investigates the shooting of two North Korean soldiers who were on guard duty in the demilitarised zone. Sombre and affecting military whodunnit.
 1.15am, ABC1 Forget Me Not (romance, 1936, G, b/w, rpt) ★★ Beniamino Gigli, Joan Gardner. A young woman's romance with a first officer is ruined by a jealous ex-lover. Forgettable love story.
 1.30am, Go! Fair Game (action thriller, 1995, M, rpt) ★ Cindy Crawford, William Baldwin, Steven Berkoff. A detective is assigned to protect a beautiful attorney being hunted by the KGB. Cindy Crawford's movie debut is notable only for its preposterous plot and laughable dialogue.
 2.25am, ABC1 Annabel Takes A Tour (comedy, 1938, G, b/w, rpt) ★★ Lucille Ball, Jack Oakie, Ruth Donnelly. A wacky heiress falls in love with the songwriter she's been romantically linked with as a publicity stunt. All the old cast are back for this lacklustre sequel to The Affairs of Annabel.
